Presents a collection of short stories based on traditional fairy tales that expose the futility of idealism.

There are places that hold evil, houses so vile, so tainted, that people refuse to live in them. Farnham House is one of those places. Once an inn, this majestic old New England manor house is back on the market, and the price is very reasonable. Sam Cabot is a man tired of moving. Now he wants nothing more than to live a quiet life in the country with his wife and young son. Little does he know that he will soon begin a long, slow descent into madness and that he will spend his summer living with dead things.

damage, chemically inert and biocompatible and it will become "the material" for bio-electronics, in-vivo applications, radiation detectors and high-frequency devices. Thin-Film Diamond II is the first book to summarize state of the art of CVD diamond in depth. It covers the most recent results regarding growth and structural properties, doping and defect characterization, hydrogen in and on diamond as well as surface properties in general, applications of diamond in electrochemistry, as detectors, and in surface acoustic wave devices * Accessible by both experts and non-experts in the field of semi-conductors research and technology, each chapter is written in a tutorial format · * Assisting engineers to manufacture devices with optimized electronic properties · * Truly international, this volume contains chapters written by recognized experts representing academic and industrial institutions from Europe, Japan and the US

The nation-state of Trinidad and Tobago offers a unique nation-space, as Homi K Bhabha would say, for the study of the forces and ideologies of nationalism. This book reveals how this ethnically diverse nation, independent for less than forty years, has provided fertile ground for the creative tension between the imagination of the writer and the official discourse on nationalism. Harney argues that this discourse has in turn been embedded in a struggle that propelled the nation's story. He explores the influences on the sense of national identity caused by migration and the ethnicization of migrant communities in the cities. Adding to the comparative tone of much of this book, models of nationalism and ethnicity, often based on other societies, are tested against the imaginings of Trinidad by such essayists as VS Naipaul, CLR James, Willi Chen, Valerie Belgrave and Earl Lovelace. Using the wealth of imaginative literature produced by Trinidadians at home and abroad over the last forty years, together with European-based scholarship on theories of nationalism, this book provides a fascinating understanding of the forging of a national identity.

Sierra Ward seems like the perfect college student, she studies hard and works harder. When the death of her best friend causes her to question her life choices, she does what anyone would do; she hits a bar and has a one night stand with a dark and handsome stranger who may just turn out to be her soulmate, but all she promised him was one night. Burdening Dylan with all of her baggage is the last thing Sierra wants to do, so she skips out with the morning light well aware that she may never see him again. Months later she has a new major and a new career; but none of that matters when he reappears in the most unexpected place, and before she knows it, he's everywhere. Now Sierra's wondering if there really is such a thing as soulmates, and if there is, will she get a second chance to do it right, or will she be fated to wander incomplete for the rest of her life.
