Novel by Donatien Alphonse Fran ç ois de Sade, better known in the history of literature as Marquis de Sade. The story of Justine tells the fate of two sisters and how the older sister, by acting vilely, was able to obtain a life full of benefits, while the younger (Justine) by acting well and maintaining her integrity, went through many unfortunate situations. This book speaks with a too explicit language, its situations are very aberrant bordering on madness, unnatural sexual debauchery, torture, blood, rapes; which are sometimes expressed with joy and the justification of each character. It's a read to enjoy twisted minds learning a little about the philosophy of evil and delving into the depths of that of human perversion.!! ENJOY IT NOW! READING IS A PLEASURE

Lorsagne while defending herself for her crimes, en route to punishment and death. She explains the series of misfortunes which have led her to be in her present situation.

Justine, a young orphan sets off to make her way in France. It follows her until age 26, in her quest for virtue. She is presented with sexual lessons, hidden under a virtuous mask. The unfortunate situations include: the time when she seeks refuge and confession in a monastery, but is forced to become a sex slave to the monks, who subject her to countless orgies, rapes, and similar rigours. When helping a gentleman who is robbed in a field, he takes her back to his chateau with promises of a post caring for his wife, but she is then confined in a cave and subject to much the same punishment. These punishments are mostly the same throughout, even when she goes to a judge to beg for mercy in her case as an arsonist, and then finds herself openly humiliated in court, unable to defend herself. These are described in true Sadean form. However, unlike some of his other works, the novel is not just a catalogue of sadism. In her search for work and shelter Justine constantly fell into the hands of rogues who would ravish and torture her and the people she makes friends with. Justine was falsely accused of theft by Harpin and sent to jail expecting execution. She had to ally herself with a Miss Dubois, a criminal who helped her to escape along with her band. In order to escape they had to start a fire in the prison, in which 21 people died. After escaping the band of Dubois, Justine wanders off and accidentally trespasses upon the lands of the count of Bressac. *****
