Learning Communities in Education: Directions for ...

A learning community is a group of people who share common academic goals and attitudes and meet semi-regularly to collaborate on classwork. Such communities have become the template for a cohort-based, interdisciplinary approach to higher education. This may be based on an advanced kind of educational or 'pedagogical' design. Community psychologists such as McMillan and Chavis state that there are four key factors that defined a sense of community: " membership, influence, fulfillment of indivi
