¶This sequel to Breaking Through and The Circuit again brings to the forefront the daily trials of poor immigrant families . . . compelling and honest.¶School Library Journal From the perspective of the young adult he was then, Francisco Jiménez describes the challenges he faced in his efforts to continue his education. During his college years, the very family solidarity that allowed Francisco to survive as a child is tested. Not only must he leave his family behind when he goes to Santa Clara University, but while Francisco is there, his father abandons the family and returns to Mexico. This is the story of how Francisco coped with poverty, with his guilt over leaving his family financially strapped, with his self-doubt about succeeding academically, and with separation. Once again his telling is honest, true, and inspiring A Smithsonian Magazine Best Book of the Year ¶Rooted in the past, Jiménez's story is also about the continuing struggle to make it in America, not only for immigrant kids but also for those in poor families. Never melodramatic or self-important, the spare episodes will draw readers with the quiet daily detail of work, anger, sorrow, and hope.¶Booklist (starred review) ¶In this eloquent, transfixing account, Jiménez again achieves a masterful addition to the literature of the memoir.¶Smithsonian Magazine ¶No one who reads these life stories will forget them. Jiménez reaches out to let us walk in his shoes, feel his pain and pride, joy and sorrow, regrets and hope.¶Sacramento Bee

Traces the author's education at Columbia University, where he struggled with cultural differences and a changing sense of identity.

"La frontera...I heard it for the first time back in the late 1940s when Papa and Mama told me and Roberto, my older brother, that someday we would take a long trip north, cross la frontera, enter California, and leave our poverty behind." So begins this honest and powerful account of a family's journey to the fields of California--to a life of constant moving, from strawberry fields to cotton fields, from tent cities to one-room shacks, from picking grapes to topping carrots and thinning lettuce. Seen through the eyes of a boy who longs for an education and the right to call one palce home, this is a story of survival, faith, and hope. It is a journey that will open readers' hearts and minds.

At the age of fourteen, Francisco Jiménez, together with his older brother Roberto and his mother, are caught by la migra. Forced to leave their home in California, the entire family travels all night for twenty hours by bus, arriving at the U.S. and Mexican border in Nogales, Arizona. In the months and years that follow during the late 1950s-early 1960s, Francisco, his mother and father, and his seven brothers and sister not only struggle to keep their family together, but also face crushing poverty, long hours of labor, and blatant prejudice. How they sustain their hope, their good-heartedness, and tenacity is revealed in this moving, Pura Belpré Honor-winning sequel to The Circuit. Without bitterness or sentimentality, Francisco Jiménez finishes telling the story of his youth.

Studienarbeit aus dem Jahr 2006 im Fachbereich Politik - Internationale Politik - Thema: Int. Organisationen u. Verbände, Note: 1,7, Universität Konstanz, Veranstaltung: Nichtstaatliche politische Organisationen, Sprache: Deutsch, Abstract: In der vorliegenden Hausarbeit sollen die Ansätze von Mancur Olson (Die Logik des Kollektiven Handelns. Kollektivgüter und die Theorie der Gruppen), James Coleman (Macht und Gesellschaftsstruktur), Dieter Rucht (Parteien, Verbände und Bewegungen als Systeme politischer Interessenvermittlung) und Walter Powell (Weder Markt noch Hierarchie. Netzwerkartige Organisationsformen), zu ihrer Aussagekraft bezüglich gemeinschaftsbasierter AIDS Organisatio-nen untersucht werden. Die Gruppe der gemeinschafts-basierten AIDS Organisationen stellen im Feld der nichtstaatlichen politischen Organisationen einen besonderen Vertreter dar. Ihr grundlegender Unterschied im vergleich zu anderen Nicht-Regierungsorganisationen besteht laut Kenis darin, dass sie nicht nur für die betroffenen Gruppen, sondern mehrheitlich von diesen Gruppen selbst ins Leben gerufen worden sind (Kenis 2000: 124).Ich möchte mich in meinen Ausführungen nicht auf gemeinschafts-basierte AIDS Or-ganisationen in aller Welt beziehen, sondern hauptsächlich auf die gemeinschafts-basierte AIDS Organisation ACT-UP (AIDS Coalition to Unleash Power; http://www.actupny.org/ index.html), um das Thema in der Kürze einer Hausarbeit angemessen bearbeiten zu können und um meine Ausführungen mit praktischen Erläuterungen und Beispielen dieser Organisation zu untermauern. ACT-UP soll dabei stellvertretendes Beispiel für viele westlichen ge-meinschafts-basierten AIDS Organisationen sein, die sich im Gegensatz zu afrikanischen oder asiatischen Organisationen anfangs fast ausschließlich aus der Gruppe der durch Bluttransfu-sionen mit dem HI-Virus infizierten Personen und aus der Gruppe der mit AIDS infizierten Homosexuellen gründeten (Kenis 2000: 128). Ursprünglich wurde ACT-UP 1987, 6 Jahre nach der ersten Identifizierung des HI-Virus, in New York gegründet und konnte sich in den letzten fast zwei Jahrzehnten nach Angaben von ACT-UP in über 70 weitere Städte und Regi-onen in den USA und weltweit ausbreiten (http://www.actupny.org/documents/capsule-home.html). ACT-UP nimmt daher eine weitgehende Vorreiterrolle unter den gemeinschafts-basierten AIDS Organisationen ein und stellt ein sehr erfolgreiches und engagiertes Beispiel dar. Deshalb scheint es mir angemessen, ACT-UP als Maßstab für die Überprüfung der Aus-sagkraft der verschiedenen Ansätze zu gemeinschafts-basierten AIDS Organisationen zu nehmen.

Because he can only speak Spanish, Francisco, son of a migrant worker, has trouble when he begins first grade, but his fascination with the caterpillar in the classroom helps him begin to fit in.

Experiencing first love, dealing with crushes and mending broken hearts are some of the topics of love and life captured in these beautiful poems, told from the point of view of young adults of both sexes and diverse ethnicities. Reprint.

Fourteen-year-old Mateo and other Caribbean islanders face discrimination, segregation, and harsh working conditions when American recruiters lure them to the Panamanian rain forest in 1906 to build the great canal.

This powerful Newbery-winning classic tells the story of the great coon dog Sounder and his family. An African American boy and his family rarely have enough to eat. Each night, the boy's father takes their dog, Sounder, out to look for food. The man grows more desperate by the day. When food suddenly appears on the table one morning, it seems like a blessing. But the sheriff and his deputies are not far behind. The ever-loyal Sounder remains determined to help the family he loves as hard times bear down. This classic novel shows the courage, love, and faith that bind a family together despite the racism and inhumanity they face in the nineteenth-century deep South. Readers who enjoy timeless dog stories such as Old Yeller and Where the Red Fern Grows will find much to love in Sounder, even as they read through tears at times.
